The Enormous Turnip

Once upon a time, there lived a little old man and a little old woman. One day, the little old man planted some turnip seeds.

One of the turnips grew... and grew... and grew... until it was enormous.
The little old man pulled, and pulled but still the turnip would not budge.

The little old man shouted to his wife to help.
Together they pulled, and pulled, but still the turnip would not budge!
So they shouted to a boy who was playing in the field.
Together they pulled, and pulled, but still the turnip would not budge!

So they all shouted to a girl to help.
Together they pulled, and pulled, but still the turnip would not budge!
So they all shouted to the old man's dog to help.
Together they pulled, and pulled, but still the turnip would not budge!

So they all called the little old woman's cat to help.
Together they pulled, and pulled, but still the turnip would not budge!

So they all called the farmhouse mouse to help.
Together they pulled, and pulled, and pulled, and suddenly... out popped the enormous turnip! The little old man was very pleased.
He invited everyone round for a turnip dinner!

Research the following flags and colour them in correctly.

Flags of Australia The Torres Strait Islander Flag

Symbols

The Torres Strait Islander flag features three horizontal panets. The top and bottom panels are green, and the centre panel is blue. They are divided by thick black borders:

- The centre of the flog features a white Dhari (traditional heoddress) and a five pointed star. - Green represents the land.
- Blue represents the water.
-Black represents the Indigenous people.
- White represents peace.
- The Dhari represents the Torres Strait Islander people.
- The star represents the five island groups of the Torres Strait.
-The star is also an important navigation symbol for seafaring people.

History

The Torres Strait Islander flog was designed by the late Bernard Namok in 1992. It was the winning design in a competition run by the Torres Strait Istand Coordinating Council. It was officially recognised as a flag of Australia in 1995.

Use

The Torres Strait Islander flag can be flown on any day. It has special significance on days of particular importance to Torres Strait Islander people, such as NAIDOC Week, Recanciliation Week and Mabo Day. It is also flown with the Australian National Flag and the Aboriginal flag on days of national importance, such as Anzac Day and at internationol ewents.
